CHHSM Organizations Support Ferguson During Crisis

For CHHSM organizations serving the Ferguson, Missouri, area, recent events have led them to find new ways to step in and serve a devastated community. Ferguson, a St. Louis suburb, made headlines last August when an unarmed African-American teen was fatally shot by a white police officer. The town, which was already struggling with poverty and underlying issues of racism, exploded. Read more »

FORMING LEADERS

“The experience of attending the Nollau Institute helped me view leadership, purpose, compassion, social justice and spirituality in a panoramic way; ensuring that I keep all elements in mind when supporting the mission of my organization, its staff and the families that we serve ... ”

Stephanie Franklin
Teen Parent Service Network Director, UCAN, Chicago, Illinois
