Ministries Impact Community Health

Getting screened for prostate cancer is simple enough - unless you're homeless and without transportation. That's one of the lessons Mary Tell learned earlier this year as community health specialist at Back Bay Mission in Biloxi, Mississippi, where she's writing the script for a new role focused on prevention. CHHSM Leads the Way in Ferguson

For more than 100 children from Ferguson, Missouri, summer camp helped heal trauma from last year, when their community was shattered by the death of Michael Brown, the unarmed teen shot and killed by a local police officer. Read more »

Cedar Community Announces New CEO

For only the third time in its 62-year history, Cedar Community has announced a new CEO. Lynn Olson, president and CEO of Hannibal Regional Hospital in Hannibal, Missouri, has accepted the leadership position in anticipation of Cedar Community CEO Steve Jaberg's retirement on Jan. 22, 2016. FROM THE PRESIDENT

One Year In

As you read this issue of Diakonie, the CHHSM board is on its way to Cleveland to meet for the final time in 2015. This meeting is an important one for the life of our shared ministry. Read more »

"A servant leader is one that does not think twice of getting their God-given crown dusty and soiled in the service of others, and that unequivocally says 'yes' to the cross in the most extreme moments of incarnation."
